

Livemore have appointed New Associate Partner

Description

We are thrilled to announce the well-deserved promotion of Richard Lamprell to the role of Associate Partner. Following an impressive career within Livemore, providing his expertise to many large organisations in the private and public sectors, Richard is a highly respected member of the team who has a positive impact on the Practice as a whole. He has invaluable experience and has recently been accredited by RICS as a Chartered Building Surveyor, demonstrating his outstanding dedication and knowledge of the industry.
