

Livmore sponsor Royal Mail Charity Bike Ride

Description

Livmore are delighted to have sponsored the Royal Mail team for their 3 day charity bike ride, cycling 200 miles from Rimini to Livorno in support of the Rowland Hill Fund, a charity set up to help Royal Mail colleagues and their families both past and present.

The deserving recipient of the 'Livmore Rider of the Day' award for Day 3 of the event was presented to David Mellor of Prologis. Having struggled the previous two days, David really came into his own and stayed with the pack the whole day, cycling harder and faster to keep up. The judges were clear that David's efforts were worthy of the reward.

A huge well done to David and all the cyclists who participated for their incredible fundraising efforts.
